

Color each person to look different because like Peter learned, Jesus wants to be everyone's friend! Next, cut on the dotted line and then practice telling each person "Jesus loves you want to be your friend forever." After you practice with the cards, tell everyone you meet!