

God has a plan for me.

Cut on dotted lines & color then put the pictures in order as you retell the story.
Remember that even though things were hard, Joseph trusted God's plan. We can trust God even when things are hard because God loves us, God's with us, and God's got a plan for us!